

2019 Program

Day One

USA: 4pm PDT Thursday 11 April 2019

Session One - Sports Cardiology as a Profession

Summit opening - a message from the summit convenor

| Tony Forshaw

Why is Sports Cardiology Important? - illustrative cases

| David Prior

Sports Cardiology - a competency not an interest

| Michael Papadakis

An Integrated Approach to Exercise as a Therapy

| Andrew Maiorana

Session Two - Screening and Evaluation of the Athlete

Interpreting the athlete's ECG

| Joyee Basu

Advanced imaging of the athlete (including assessment and management of the athlete with CAD)

| Christian Hamilton-Craig

Genetic screening of the athlete

| Belinda Gray

Day Two

USA: 4pm PDT Thursday 12 April 2019

Session Three - Adaptations and Consequences of Exercise

Different strokes for different folks? The role of sport modality in the athlete's left ventricle
| Katharine Currie

Right ventricular dysfunction in endurance athletes
| Andre La Gerche

The athlete's aorta
| Sharon Kay

Cardiovascular effects of overtraining
| Alexandra Coates

De-training demystified
| Charles Pedlar

Session Four - Special Populations

Athlete's with congenital heart disease
| Silvana Molossi

The female athlete
| Meagan Wasfy

Atrial fibrillation and the Athlete
| John Mandrola

Can I Play?? - Navigating the return to competition
| Jason Kaplan

Summit Close